

Cale Williams
Cory, Indiana
Terre Haute South FFA Chapter
A.J. Williams, Advisor

Cale Williams, 18, is currently serving as the 2024-2025 Indiana FFA State Southern Region Vice President. Cale is ecstatic for the opportunity to serve the nearly 15,000 members of the Indiana FFA Association. Cale is the son of A.J. and Kristi Williams.

Throughout his four years of active membership in the National FFA Organization, Cale has served in numerous leadership positions on the Chapter, District, and State level. On the Chapter level, Cale has served as the Terre Haute South FFA Chapter President as well as the Student Advisor. On the District level, Cale has served as the 2022-2023 District VII Sentinel and is currently stationed by the rising sun as the 2023-2024 District VII President. Throughout his involvement at the State level, Cale is a member of the Indiana FFA Executive Committee and has attended numerous conferences as both a camper and counselor. These experiences have instilled his love to teach and mentor younger members on a consistent basis. At the National level, Cale has been fortunate enough to attend the 2023 Washington Leadership Conference and serve as the Indiana FFA First Alternate National Delegate at the 96th National FFA Convention and Expo.

Cale has been involved in numerous Career and Leadership Development Events, including the Skillathon and Livestock Evaluation CDEs, in which he has qualified for the state contest on multiple occasions. Additionally, Cale has participated in events such as Prepared Public Speaking and Employment Skills. He won his District Creed Speaking Contest as a Freshman and Premier Leadership LDE as a Senior and has qualified for the state contest in both categories.

Cale's Supervised Agricultural Experiences include both Agricultural Sales Placement and Swine Production Entrepreneurship. His swine operation consists of 15 head of registered purebred sows. Additionally, he works for his family's feed and seed business in which he operates equipment and consistently checks the inventory of the business.

Cale has been extremely active within his school and community. He will be a ten-year member of 4-H and is a member of the Clay County Youth Grant Committee. Within his school, Cale has been the Secretary of Student Council, President of the National Honor Society, and a member of the Vigo County School Corporation Youth Leadership Advisory Committee. Cale was named as a Purdue University Trustees Scholarship recipient.

Cale was ranked 2nd out of 386 students in his class. He graduated with both an Academic and Technical Honors Diploma. Cale plans to attend Purdue University and major in Pharmacy while simultaneously obtaining his Master's in Business Administration with the hope to one day become a Hospital Administrator or Animal Pharmaceutical Company Administrator.
