Sienna Alexander, 17 is currently serving as the 2024-2025 Indiana FFA State Reporter, and cannot wait to serve the over 14,000 members within Indiana FFA. She is the second oldest of five children, and the daughter of Stephanie Lannan and Shane Alexander.

Throughout her time of active membership within the FFA organization, Sienna has served as the Chapters reporter from 2020-2021, and the president for the years of 2022 and 2023. She has also served as the District's parliamentarian from 2022-2023, and the District's Reporter from 2023-2024. Sienna has been given the top chapter member award for the past two years due to her undeniable passion and devotion for the organization. Sienna has worked diligently to advance her leadership by attending a multitude of leadership development camps at the Indiana FFA Leadership Center including Premier Leadership Training twice, Seeking Opportunities Achieving Results twice, and the Winter Leadership Development Workshop. Sienna has also worked at the FFA Pavilion, and Little Hands on The Farm twice at the Indiana State Fair to promote FFA and advocate for agriculture. Sienna has been a member of her Chapter's FFA for five years, and served on the District team for two.

Sienna has been heavily involved in Leadership and Career Development Events during her FFA membership. At the State level, Sienna has placed fourth in Agriculture Education, and second in her Agricultural Issues Forum. Sienna also placed in the top 32 for Welding, and competed in Horticulture. Sienna's competitive nature can be seen through her quantity of development events at the district level. She has placed 1st in Premier Leadership, 2nd in prepared public speaking, as well as 3rd place in job interview, extemporaneous speaking, and scrapbook. Sienna has competed in Parliamentary Procedure where her team placed 4th, and received 5th in small engines and as an individual in welding.

Sienna's Supervised Agricultural Experience is in Agriculture Education. She is the Chair of the district's Elementary Agriculture Day, and also runs a booth in S.T.E.M. night. As a part of her SAE, Sienna serves as an intern for her school's agriculture education department. During this internship, Sienna facilitates labs, builds lesson plans, and grades papers. Sienna's main goals for this SAE included expanding her facilitation skills, being able to effectively work on a team, and being able to successfully organize an event for the community.

Sienna prioritizes her community involvement, and has been involved in many different clubs throughout her four years in high school. She is the Student Body President and Secretary for the National Honor Society. Sienna also serves as the Vice President of the Girl's Leadership Association of Monrovia, and is a member of Sunshine Society. During the summer and fall, Sienna enjoys spending her time as a volunteer youth cheer coach.

Sienna ranked 9th in her class of 104 students, and graduated in May 2024 with an Academic and Technical Honors diploma. She plans to attend Purdue University to pursue a degree in Animal science, while being a student of the Honors college. With her degree, Sienna hopes to be an animal geneticist specializing in Beef Cattle!
